Santa Claus Letters

Dear Santa Claus:

I live with my mama and papa and brother on Point Comfort, so please do not forget me. I want a doll, a teddy bear, set of dishes, table, and some candy, nuts and fruit.

Your little friend,
NELLIE RAYMOND.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a very little boy, but please do not overlook me. I would like for Christmas a hammer, a knife like my papa's, a saw, a bank so I can save my money and just lots of candy, nuts, oranges and good things.

Your little friend,
WILLIE RAYMOND.

Dear Santa Claus:

Here is what I want for Christmas: A pair of roller skates and a magic lantern a big drum and a searchlight, and two pieces of red ribbon for my cat and dog about a yard long. My poor dog got run over by the street cars last Friday evening after school when my grandma was here, and I have hunted for him ever since, but I can't find him, and I cry about it so much. You might bring me a little dog just like him if you will, and can find one as nice as Sport, and Dear Old Santa you may bring my mama a library table if it's not too big to bring. Bring papa a safety razor and I know what else I want him to have. I will fix you a good lunch in the parlor and leave the gas on so you will be nice and cozy when you are trimming the Christmas tree. I hope you bring what I asked for. I have been good to my papa and mama and good at school, too.

Your loving friend,
RANDALL SQUIRES.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want some dolls and a music box and some blocks.
